

5.5 Exercise

This is an exercise for you to work through in order to practically apply what you have learned in this Module.

Referencing the project you have been using in our previous exercises, identify common sources of conflict within the project environment and how authority and influence have been used both in positive and negative ways.

